

OXFORDSHIRE COUNTY SCOUT COUNCIL
COUNTY TRAILER LOAN DOCUMENT

Oxfordshire County Scout Council agrees to loan the County Trailer, subject to this document, to:

Person Responsible:
Group (if applicable):
Contact address:
Contact phone:
Contact e-mail:
Loan period:	FROM: TO:

The Person Responsible and/or Group are referred to as 'You' below. The following rules apply:

1. You are responsible for the replacement costs to any tyres damaged during the loan period.
2. You are responsible for the full costs of repairs or replacement parts of the trailer should it be damaged during the loan period.
3. You are responsible for ensuring that the towing vehicle insurance is valid and has adequate cover for towing the trailer. The trailer is insured for use on the road with the vehicle towing it. OCSC insures the trailer for theft, third party damage whilst un-hitched etc.
4. You will inform Bob Earl if the trailer is in need of repair or adjustment and you will not carry out or authorise any repairs or adjustments without the consent of Bob Earl.
5. If the trailer is involved in any form of accident, you will inform Bob Earl.
6. A number plate is a legal requirement and the number plate of the vehicle towing the trailer should be displayed on it at all times.
7. The speed limits when towing are normally 50mph on an A or B road and 60mph on most dual carriageways and motorways. There are exceptions to these limits.
8. The trailer manufacturer's stated weight/load tolerances must not be exceeded.
9. The trailer should be towed only by a vehicle which is appropriately weight rated for the load and driven by a driver appropriately licensed.
10. When not secured to a vehicle, the trailer MUST have the hitch-lock provided fitted.
